

Conservation Day for Butterflies

Saturday 10th March 2018

Butterfly
Conservation
50th Anniversary

Join us for a Conservation Day at Millhoppers Pasture Butterfly Reserve,
near Wilstone, Tring.

To mark the 50th anniversary of Butterfly Conservation we are holding an open morning at Butterfly Conservation's only dedicated butterfly reserve in Hertfordshire and Middlesex.

Meet at either 10.30am or 12.00 midday at Wilstone Village Hall

(Postcode - HP23 4PE; Grid reference SP903142) and walk to the reserve.

Parking is available either at Wilstone Village Hall, or in the main street nearby. There is no parking at the Reserve which is 10 minutes walk.

Events on the day will include

- A guided walk round the reserve
- Meet the new Reserve Wardens
- Take part in conservation tasks
- Displays about conservation and habitat management

Some section of the walk may be muddy, so wear boots and suitable outdoor clothes

PEACOCK - TONY COX

Saving butterflies, moths and our environment

Butterfly
Conservation

To find out more about us visit:

www.butterfly-conservation.org

facebook.com/savebutterflies

twitter.com/savebutterflies